

Name _____ Period _____

The Counterculture (23.1)

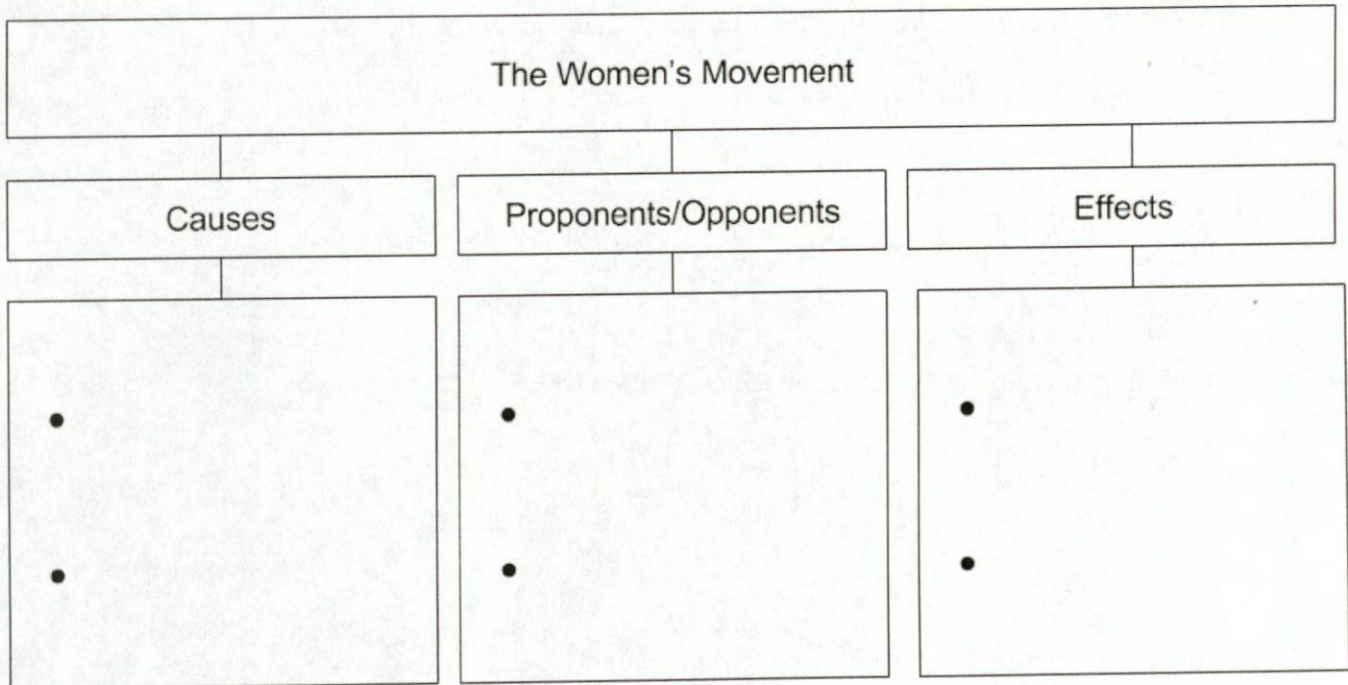

Directions: Use pages 762-765 to answer the following questions below.

1. WITNESS HISTORY Using the quote, what do you think was the overall focus of the counterculture?
2. Define generation gap. What generations were involved with the "generation gap"?
3. Thinking about the values held by members of the counterculture, how were they reflected in their behaviors and attitudes toward mainstream society?
4. Given the social rebellion of the counterculture, what can you infer about their parents' values?
5. Explain whether you agree with the following statement: "The counterculture was a form of protest."

The Women's Rights Movement (23.2)

Directions: Use pages 766-770 to fill out the chart and answer the following questions below.

1. Record the causes, effects, and main figures in the Women's Movement in the following chart:

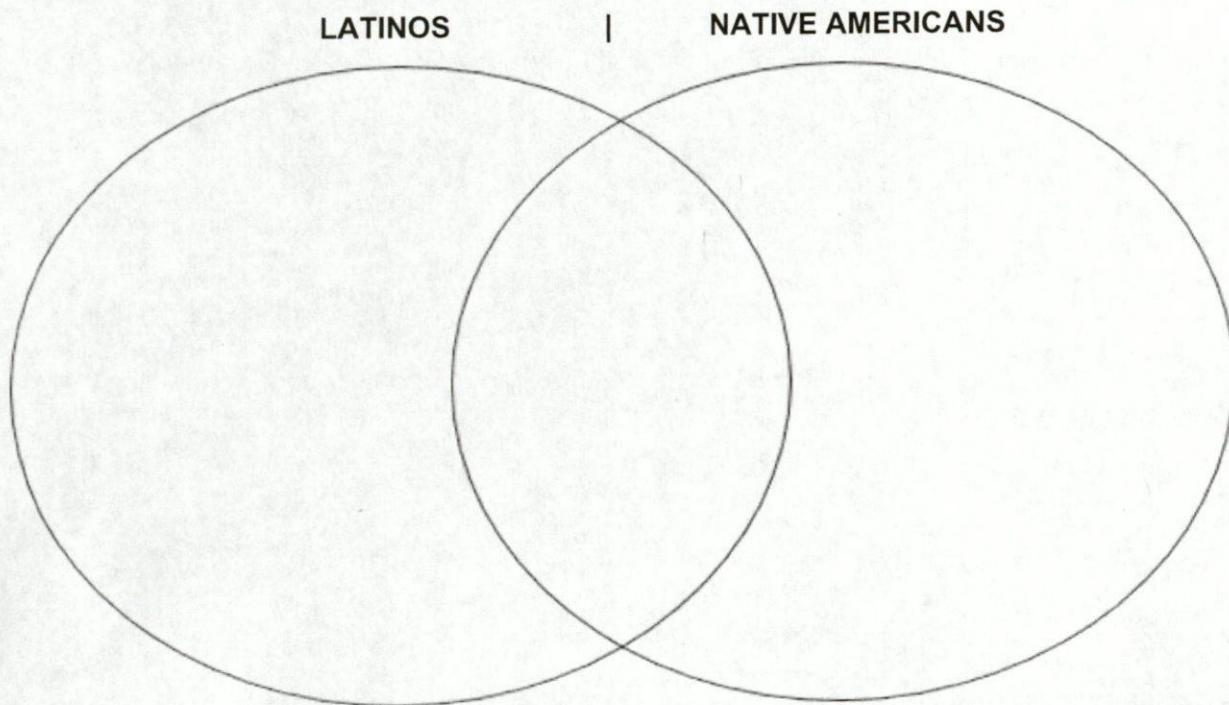

2. How did the Civil Rights Movement influence the Women's Movement?
3. Why might women in the 1960s have been dissatisfied with traditional gender roles?
4. What resulted from the presence of more women in the workplace?

The Rights Revolution Expands (23.3)

Directions: Use pages 772-777 to fill out the chart and answer the following questions below.

1. Use the Venn diagram to compare and contrast the Latino and Native American rights movements.

2. How was the focus of the Chicano movement different from the goals of the United Farm Workers (UFW)?
3. How did the tactics of American Indian Movement (AIM) differ from the early Civil Rights Movement and the Latino Movement?
4. Why do you think the Nixon administration created a government agency to oversee workplace safety?

The Environmental Movement (23.4)

Directions: Use pages 778-783 to fill out the chart and answer the following questions below.

1. WITNESS HISTORY What do you think Rachel Carson was implying in her last sentence?
2. How was the new environmental movement different from the conservation movement?
3. How does failing to ratify the Kyoto Protocol reflect American uncertainty about protecting the global environment?
4. Why do some people support oil exploration in the Arctic Refuge?
5. How did the goals and tactics of the environmental movement compare with those of the women's movement?